OUR STORY

Commercial Decor & Props came to life in 2023 through founder Zachary Williams' deep-seated passion for crafting unforgettable experiences. Zachary, having put together grand-scale events in cities like London and Shanghai, found himself drawn not only to the spectacle of each event but to the intricate, custom props that brought the whole picture together; it is props that turn visuals into experiences. Today, we set the standard in commercial holiday decorating with our collaborative spirit, unwavering commitment to fine-grained details often overlooked, and boundless creativity. In short, we deliver excellence at every scale, and our track record speaks for itself.

SECURE REPEAT BUSINESS AS A COMMERCIAL DECOR & PROPS PARTNER

Partnerships are part of our collaborative spirit, which is why we work with both a traditional dealer and rental network, marketing and event companies, and even commercial end-users directly. If you're in the business of event organizing, prop rentals, or supplying, we'd be happy to grow together and make your next event the newest buzzworthy attraction.
